

ARTICLE X-A. FENCES

Section 1013. Limitations on fences

- A. It shall be unlawful to construct, erect, and/or maintain a fence in the front yard of any lot, tract, or parcel of land in the Township which is located in an R-C, R-1, or R-2 Residence District. However, if within an R-C, R-1, or R-2 Residence District, the lot is a corner lot which abuts on more than one street, a fence may be erected in any front yard which does not abut the street which is designated by the United States Postal Service as the address of the lot. Such fence shall not extend beyond the side of the structure facing the street of address.

1. The provisions of Section 1.A. above shall not apply to properties owned by any public or private school for academic instruction, government agencies, or public transportation companies.
