ADDICTION AND CONNECTION TO TREATMENT

- Training Program through Phoenix Training and St. Joseph's University
- One of the primary objectives of the Center for Addiction and Recovery Education (CARE) at Saint Joseph's University is to provide educational opportunities to create understanding around substance use disorder. Through a partnership with the PA Department of Health and the Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation, they offer a peer-to-peer training program designed to teach first responders how to approach those with substance use disorder with compassion and provide valuable resources to connect those in need to treatment options.
